PART III OF INFORMATIONAL SESSIONS ON VOTER ID LAW

Sup. Harris and National Coalition of 100 Black Women Milwaukee Chapter continue series of events

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Supervisor Nikiya Harris and the National Coalition of 100 Black Women Milwaukee Chapter are inviting all Milwaukee County residents to attend the third of three Informational Sessions on the importance of preserving the right to vote.

Panelists in the first session provided insight and advice on the Voter ID Bill and how it will impact Milwaukee County residents. Part II focused on elderly, disabled, veterans, college students and minority groups. Saturday's third session will provide informational materials to festival-goers preparing every eligible voter to exercise their right to vote.

"The Voter ID law is having a huge impact on voting," Supervisor Harris said. "We are doing everything we can to educate the public in light of this assault on democracy."
